THE CITY OF ROCHESTER, a municipal entity, “JOHN DOE POLICE OFFICERS 1-200” (names and number of whom are unknown at present), COUNTY OF MONROE, TODD BAXTER, “RICHARD ROE SHERIFF’S DEPUTIES 1-200” (names and number of whom are unknown at present), and other unidentified members of the Rochester Police Department and Monroe County Sheriff’s Office,

INDEX NO.:

COMPLAINT
[JURY TRIAL DEMANDED]

Plaintiff, by her attorneys, ROTH & ROTH, LLP and EASTON THOMPSON

KASPAREK SHIFFRIN LLP, complaining of the defendants, respectfully allege as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. On September 4, 2020, JESSE AMES attended a protest to call for justice for Daniel Prude, to mourn the loss of Black lives, demand the City finally end its racist and brutal policing practices, and call for new visions of public safety that value Black lives.

2. In response, Rochester Police Department (“RPD”) officers and Monroe County Sheriff’s Deputies used the Court Street bridge to “kettle” hundreds of protesters, including Ms. AMES, subjected them with chemical weapons, sprayed them with tear gas, and attacked them with pepper balls—a scene tragically reminiscent of the 1965 “Bloody Sunday” attack on civil rights demonstrators on the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama.

3. Chemical weapons, like tear gas, are banned in warfare because they are indiscriminate weapons by design, especially when deployed by firing a grenade or canister.

Chemical Weapons can cause severe injury or death, and, even at low concentrations, exposure to tear gas presents a risk of serious, irreversible health effects.

4. For Ms. AMES, exposure to the chemical weapons on September 4, 2020 by Defendants caused her to have a miscarriage.

5. Prior to September 4, 2020, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge that teargas and other chemical weapons could cause severe damage to women's reproductive systems, including miscarriage. Throughout the summer of 2020, in the months prior to the protests in Rochester, it was widely reported that law enforcement's use of teargas and other chemical weapons against protesters at Black Lives Matter protests caused severe damage to women's reproductive systems. Despite this knowledge, Defendants chose to use teargas and other chemical weapons against Ms. AMES and other protesters.

6. Ms. AMES brings this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages and attorney's fees pursuant to New York State law and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988.

II. PARTIES

7. Plaintiff JESSE AMES is a resident of the City of Rochester, State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF ROCHESTER ("CITY") is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. Defendant CITY assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the RPD.

9. Defendant CITY OF ROCHESTER ("CITY") was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York. Defendant CITY maintains the City of Rochester Police Department, a duly authorized police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department. RPD acts as Defendant CITY's agent and Defendant CITY assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police department and the employment of police officers.

10. "JOHN DOE" ROCHESTER POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFICERS 1-200 (the names and numbers of which are currently unknown), were, at all times relevant to this Complaint, Police Officers with the RPD. At all relevant times, these defendants were acting within the scope of their employment with the CITY and RPD and under color of state law. They are sued in their individual capacities. John Doe RPD Officers are referred to collectively as "the RPD officers."

11. Defendant COUNTY OF MONROE ("COUNTY") was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York. Defendant COUNTY maintains the Monroe County Sheriff's Office ("MCSO") and pays the salaries of the Monroe County Sheriff and MCSO deputies. MCSO acts as Defendant COUNTY'S agent and Defendant COUNTY assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of the MCSO as the COUNTY's police department.

12. Defendant TODD BAXTER ("Sheriff Baxter" or "BAXTER") was, at all times relevant herein, the duly elected Sheriff of the County of Monroe. At all relevant times, Defendant BAXTER was acting within the scope of his employment and under color of state law. He is sued in his individual and official capacity.

13. "RICHARD ROE" MONROE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES 1-200 (the names and numbers of which are currently unknown), were, at all times relevant to this Complaint, Deputy Sheriffs with the Monroe County Sheriff's Office ("MCSO"). At all relevant times, these defendants were acting within the scope of their employment with the County and under Sheriff BAXTER and acting under color of state law. They are sued in their individual capacities. They are referred to collectively as “the Sheriff’s Deputies.”

14. BAXTER is responsible for the training, supervision and discipline of the Defendant Sheriff’s Deputies under state law.

III. JURISDICTION

15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

16. Ms. AMES sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Facts Common to All Causes of Action.

17. On March 23, 2020, Daniel Prude’s family sought help from the Rochester Police Department (“RPD”) as Daniel was suffering an acute mental health crisis. Tragically, that call for help ended with Daniel naked and handcuffed with his face covered by a “spit hood,” as an RPD officer pushed his head into the freezing asphalt for several minutes. RPD officers on the scene mocked Daniel and chatted with each other while he asphyxiated. Daniel was declared brain dead that night; he was taken off life support and died on March 30.

18. When the video of RPD Officers killing Daniel Prude was finally made public on September 2, 2020, it sparked nationwide outrage. In Rochester, thousands of people gathered to mourn the loss of Black lives, demand the CITY finally end its racist and brutal policing practices, and call for new visions of public safety that value Black lives.

19. On September 2-6, 2020, the defendants responded to peaceful protests with extreme violence—including the indiscriminate use of tear gas and pepper spray, 40 millimeter blunt-impact projectiles, thousands of pepper balls, flash-bang grenades and other supposedly “less-than-lethal” munitions.

Friday September 4 to Saturday September 5, 2020

20. On September 4, RPD officers and Sheriff’s Deputies used the Court Street bridge to “kettle” protesters, spray them with tear gas, pepper spray, and attack them with pepper balls—a scene tragically reminiscent of the 1965 “Bloody Sunday” attack on civil rights demonstrators on the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama. Videos from that night show heavily armored phalanxes of police using pepper balls, 40mm kinetic bullets, tear gas, and batons to assault diverse groups of protesters outfitted only with umbrellas, cardboard boxes, and plastic children’s sleds against the Defendants’ military-grade arsenal but who nevertheless assembled to protest for racial justice and reformed policing.

21. RPD officers first escorted peaceful protesters along Court Street from Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Park towards the Public Safety Building (“PSB”) and directed them onto the Court Street Bridge. But when protesters reached the other side, law enforcement stopped them with metal barricades.

22. Defendants’ actions halted the freedom of movement of Plaintiff and other protesters, and constituted a seizure within the meaning of the Fourth Amendment.

23. After hundreds of protesters had marched onto the bridge and had nowhere to go, the police ordered the protesters to “disperse.” However, the dispersal orders were not clearly communicated, and the protesters towards the back of the bridge near South Avenue could not hear the dispersal orders. Moreover, there was nowhere for the protesters in the front or in the middle of the bridge to go, as they had to wait for hundreds of people behind them to exit the bridge before they could move.

24. Suddenly, without giving the protesters the time or opportunity to disperse—and knowing it was physically impossible for them to comply with the dispersal orders—law enforcement officers began violently attacking protesters. In fact, the RPD Officers began indiscriminately firing pepper balls into the crowd less than 30 seconds after the first “dispersal” order was issued at approximately 10:43 p.m.

25. When the RPD officers issued dispersal orders at approximately 10:43 p.m., Ms. AMES was trapped in the middle of the bridge, and it was physically impossible for her to immediately comply and leave the bridge.

26. Less than 30 seconds after the RPD officers issued dispersal orders, Ms. AMES was attacked by the RPD Officers and Sheriff’s Deputies with large amounts of chemical weapons.

27. Ms. AMES was subjected to large amounts of chemical weapons from tear gas and pepper balls.

28. Ms. AMES inhaled large amounts of tear gas and/or other chemical weapons.

29. At no time did Ms. AMES commit any crime or violation.

30. At no time did Ms. AMES threaten police in any way.

31. The RPD Officers lacked cause or any justification to or use “chemical weapons” or any physical force against Ms. AMES.

32. Any no time did Defendants make an individualized determination that they had cause or legal justification to use force against Ms. AMES; instead, the use of force was based on perceived “group conduct.”

33. Defendants use of tear gas and pepper balls halted Plaintiff's freedom of movement and constituted a seizure within the meaning of the Fourth Amendment.

34. As a result of the chemical weapons Defendants used against her on September 4-5, 2020, Ms. AMES sustained irritation to her skin, eyes, mouth, nose and lungs and a miscarriage.

35. As a result of the miscarriage, Ms. AMES had to undergo a dilation and curettage (D&C) to remove the fetal tissue from inside her uterus.

36. Ms. AMES sustained severe trauma and emotional and psychological harm from being attacked by the RPD officers and Sheriff's Deputies, from suffering a miscarriage, and from having to undergo a D&C as a result of being exposed to the chemical weapons.

B. The Effects of Teargas and Other Chemical Weapons Was Known Prior to the September 2020 Protests.

37. After George Floyd was murdered on May 25, 2020, racial justice protests took place in cities across the county. Numerous police departments responded by using teargas and other chemical weapons against protesters.

38. Immediately, protesters across the country reported that exposure to teargas and other chemical weapons caused menstrual irregularities.

39. Throughout the summer of 2020, media outlets nationwide reported that protesters who were exposed to teargas and other chemical weapons were experiencing irregularities with their menstrual cycle. See, e.g., Katie C. Reilly, Police tear gas George Floyd protests despite proof it's dangerous. Time for a ban, NBC News (June 11, 2020), <https://www.nbcnews.com/think/opinion/police-tear-gas-george-floyd-protests-despite-proof-it-s-ncna1229516> (noting that, tear gas "has been linked to miscarriages"); Jennifer Gerson, Doctors Explain What You Should Know About Tear Gas & Your Period, Bustle (June 17, 2020),

<https://www.bustle.com/p/can-tear-gas-affect-your-period-doctors-explain-what-to-know-22987529>; Nicole Wetsman, There isn't enough research to know if tear gas causes early periods: it's dangerous regardless, The Verge (June 22, 2020), <https://www.theverge.com/2020/6/22/21295159/tear-gas-menstrual-cycle-miscarriage-period-protests>; Dhruvi Chauhan, Paula Kibuka Musoke, and Goleen Samari, Using tear gas on protesters perpetuates patterns of reproductive harm, The Hill (June 26, 2020), <https://thehill.com/opinion/healthcare/504699-using-tear-gas-on-protesters-perpetuates-patterns-of-reproductive-harm>; Cecilia Nowell, Protesters Say Tear Gas Caused Them to Get Their Period Multiple Times in a Month, Teen Vogue (July 2, 2020), <https://www.teenvogue.com/story/protestors-say-tear-gas-caused-early-menstruation>; Alexandria Herr, Can tear gas mess with your period? Grist (Jul. 17, 2020), <https://grist.org/justice/can-tear-gas-mess-with-your-period/>; Rebecca Ellis, 'It's like they're testing it on us': Portland protesters say tear gas has caused irregularities with their periods, OPB (July 29, 2020), <https://www.opb.org/article/2020/07/29/tear-gas-period-menstrual-cycle-portland/>. Police are using tear gas, but lack of study and oversight raises health concerns, Associated Press (Aug. 6, 2020), <https://www.oregonlive.com/news/2020/08/police-are-using-tear-gas-but-lack-of-study-and-oversight-raises-health-concerns.html>; Abe Asher, Irregular Periods and Horrible Headaches: How Tear Gas Is Making Portland Sick, VICE (Aug. 14, 2020), <https://www.vice.com/en/article/4ay5mn/an-endless-barrage-of-tear-gas-is-making-portland-sick>; Catherine Ryan Gregory, Tear Gaslighting: Is There a Link Between Protesting and Messed Up Periods? Marie Claire (Aug. 21, 2020), <https://www.marieclaire.com/health-fitness/a33648135/tear-gas-effects-reproductive-system/>.

40. Thus, for months prior to the September 2020 protests, Defendants had clear notice that the use of teargas and other chemical weapons causes damage to women's reproductive health, including menstrual irregularities and miscarriages.

41. More importantly, the chemical weapons that Defendants used against Ms. Ames and other protesters came with warnings that stated that the chemical weapons were known to cause reproductive and developmental toxicity. In other words, Defendants knew that the chemical weapons had the potential risk to adversely affect fertility and offspring development.

42. Defendants ignored these warnings and decided to attack Plaintiff and other protesters with tear gas and other chemical weapons.

43. Pursuant to policy, on the night of September 4-5, 2020, RPD officers and/or Sheriff's Deputies attacked Ms. AMES with chemical weapons. As a result, upon information and belief, Ms. AMES suffered a miscarriage.

C. Unlawful Municipal Policies and Negligence of the City And RPD in Failing to Properly Train RPD Officers On The Proper Handling of First Amendment Assemblies, and In Failing to Supervise and Discipline Officers Who Used Excessive Force Against Protesters.

44. For months before the body worn camera video of RPD officers brutally killing Daniel Prude was released, the CITY and RPD anticipated and planned for large-scale protests when the video was eventually released.

45. From the very beginning, the City and RPD officials zeroed in on the fact that, unlike other protests, these were focused directly on police misconduct and racism. City and RPD officials at the highest levels subscribed to the theory that Black Lives Matter protests are led by a nationwide conspiracy of outside agitators bent on violence.

46. This manifested in the training of their officers, both before and since, that nonviolent protestors will stand in front to shield violent protestors who throw objects from behind them, and that not everyone standing with their hands up is peaceful. That training conveniently justifies and encourages suppressing all protestors by collectively punishing nonviolent ones. The message to their officers was clear: there is no such thing as a peaceful protestor.

47. During those several months—from at least June 4, 2020 to September 2, 2020—the CITY and RPD developed a protest response plan that included responding to peaceful protests with extreme violence; using military-grade weapons against protesters; using overwhelming amounts of chemical weapons against groups of protesters, without making individualized determinations that probable cause existed to believe that any individual within the group had committed a crime or violation; and otherwise to retaliate against protesters based on their objection to the message protesters were expressing.

48. The violations of Ms. AMES'S rights are attributable to the CITY and RPD's disregard of many years of notice, criticism, and other relevant data points, both internal and external, related to its unconstitutional policing of similar peaceful protests and peaceful demonstrations.

49. Since at least the 2009, the RPD has failed to appropriately train its officers on the proper handling of First Amendment assemblies, including peaceful protests and lawful demonstrations.

50. Upon information and belief, the core training provided by the CITY related to protest response is based on crowd management and disorder control tactics for policing large-scale civil disorders and riots.

51. According to the CITY's website, the RPD's Mobile Field Force (MFF) is a "specially trained and equipped team providing a rapid, organized and disciplined response to civil disorder [and] crowd control."

52. The MFF was the RPD's primary unit tasked with policing the peaceful protests in the wake of George Floyd and Daniel Prude in May and September 2020, respectively, and on the night of September 4-5, 2020 specifically.

53. Upon information and belief, the MFF's training and guidelines treat peaceful protests and peaceful demonstrations as military engagements and copies military tactics and focus on tactics designed to deter, disperse, and demoralize groups, such as disorder control formations and mass use of chemical weapons.

54. Such disperse and demoralize tactics have persisted through the present as exemplified by the experiences of Ms. AMES.

55. Upon information and belief, the MFF's "civil disorder" training and guidelines were never meant to be guidelines for the policing of lawful First Amendment assemblies such as demonstrations—only for large-scale civil disorders such as riots.

56. However, neither the MFF's "civil disorder" training and guidelines, nor, upon information and belief, any related RPD training, contain meaningful direction on the core First, Fourth, or Fourteenth Amendment principles that must guide constitutional policing of First Amendment assemblies.

57. For example, upon information and belief, there is virtually no RPD training—and certainly no meaningful RPD training—focusing on how to utilize the tactics described in the MFF's "civil disorder" training and guidelines without infringing on the constitutional rights of protesters, such as how to make probable cause determinations or the requirements of providing an alternative avenue of protest, meaningful time and a path of egress when issuing a dispersal order, and the like.

58. Many MFF members have histories of engaging in the kinds of misconduct complained of herein, among other places, by CRB complaints, PSS investigations and in lawsuits.

59. Examples of the RPD's unreasonable and discriminatory use of force at prior lawful protests include:

- In October 2009, an anti-war protest in Rochester resulted in several physical confrontations, with two protesters receiving stitches at the hospital after RPD officers pushed them face-first to the ground, and 12 protesters arrested for exercising their First Amendment rights. The peaceful march, held in the early evening, was interrupted by approximately forty RPD vehicles. Within three minutes of giving the order to disperse, RPD officers began to shove and hit protesters with clubs and deploy pepper spray. Protesters described RPD officers wading through the crowd to pick out Black students to arrest. A press videographer who was filming one such arrest was wrestled to the ground by police and himself arrested.
- In May 2015, Katrina Perkins was protesting police brutality on a public street in a residential neighborhood, where two of her daughters and six of her grandchildren reside. Though Ms. Perkins was peacefully demonstrating, RPD officers violently seized and arrested her and then charged her with disorderly conduct and disruption. Those charges were dismissed two months later. Police brutality is a deeply personal issue to Ms. Perkins, as her daughter Lashedica was the 13-year-old shot three times by former-Deputy Chief Simmons in 2005.

- In July 2016, in Rochester as across the nation, people took to the streets to uphold the sanctity of Black lives and call for an end to racist policing. In response, the RPD deployed, beat, shoved, and pepper sprayed protesters. As one described it: “I started to turn and they tackled me to the ground....They’re beating citizens for no reason whatsoever. I wasn’t doing anything. I was taking pictures.” RPD officers, in keeping with their pattern and practice, particularly targeted Black protesters with unlawful force, including Black journalists: Carlet Cleare and Justin Carter of WHAM-TV were both handcuffed and detained, even though Ms. Cleare was wearing a WHAM-TV shirt and they identified themselves as members of the press. Over the course of one weekend, Rochester had more arrests at its BLM protest (74) than the rest of the nation combined.

60. Despite the wealth of evidence of RPD members’ historical brutality against protesters, Defendant City has ignored, and/or failed to utilize, relevant information, including information gleaned from reports and lawsuits, as well as other data points, to identify deficiencies in RPD training as it relates to constitutionally compliant protest policing.

61. In fact, following the 2016 protest, the RPD and Mayor Lovely Warren’s office stated the police handled themselves appropriately.

62. When questioned by public officials after the September 2020 protests, former RPD Chief La’Ron Singletary stated that he did not review the RPD’s actions at the 2016 protest in developing the RPD’s strategy for responding to protests in 2020.

63. The City and RPD’s failure to train and improper training led to widespread excessive force at the 2020 protests, as demonstrated by RPD officers body worn camera videos, media reports, and RPD subject resistance reports. However, based on statements by City Officials and RPD command staff to date, and publicly available information, no RPD officer has reported any fellow officer for their unlawful use of force and no RPD officers have been disciplined for their unlawful use of force on September 2–6, 2020.

64. The City and RPD did not simply ratify excessive force through the lack of reporting and discipline. It approved the force during the demonstrations because its policies authorized these excessive levels of force. RPD training on grenadier, MFF, and crowd control tactics, as well as its subject resistance reports, show that tear gas, pepper spray, projectiles, and grenades were supplied by superiors and deployed on their orders pursuant to RPD policies on use for force. There appears to have been no consideration given to whether such force would be excessive to secure compliance with traffic laws or enforce violations or misdemeanors against nonviolent protestors.

65. In summary, upon information and belief, the RPD's exclusive focus on deterring, dispersing, and demoralizing in trainings related to policing protests, coupled with the failure to train on specific, relevant aspects of constitutional policing of protests, let alone how to encourage or facilitate protests—despite having received clear notice that RPD policing of protests has caused the systemic violations of protesters' constitutional rights for years—demonstrates the City's negligence in failing to train and supervise RPD Officers in properly and lawfully policing protests to ensure that protesters' rights under the First Amendment, Fourth Amendment, Fourteenth Amendment, and other, related rights are not violated. As a result of the City's negligence, Plaintiff was injured and harmed, as described herein.

D. Unlawful Municipal Policies and Negligence of the COUNTY and Sheriff BAXTER in Failing to Properly Train Sheriff's Deputies On The Proper Handling of First Amendment Assemblies, and In Failing to Supervise and Discipline Sheriff's Deputies Who Used Excessive Force Against Protesters.

66. Upon information and belief, for months before the body worn camera video of RPD officers brutally killing Daniel Prude was released, the COUNTY and BAXTER coordinated with the CITY and RPD to prepare for and plan their coordinated response to the anticipated large-scale protests when the video was eventually released.

67. From the very beginning, the BAXTER and other COUNTY officials zeroed in on the fact that, unlike other protests, these were focused directly on police misconduct and racism. Like the City and RPD officials, BAXTER and other COUNTY officials at the highest levels subscribed to the theory that Black Lives Matter protests are led by a nationwide conspiracy of outside agitators bent on violence.

68. This manifested in the training of their Sheriff's Deputies, both before and since, that nonviolent protestors will stand in front to shield violent protestors who throw objects from behind them, and that not everyone standing with their hands up is peaceful. That training conveniently justifies and encourages suppressing all protestors by collectively punishing nonviolent ones. The message to their Sheriff's Deputies was clear: there is no such thing as a peaceful protestor.

69. Upon information and belief, during those several months—from at least June 4, 2020 to September 2, 2020—the CITY and RPD coordinated with the COUNTY and BAXTER to develop a coordinated protest response plan that included responding to peaceful protests with extreme violence; using military-grade weapons against protestors; using overwhelming amounts of chemical weapons against groups of protestors, without making individualized determinations that probable cause existed to believe that any individual within the group had committed a crime or violation; and otherwise to retaliate against protestors based on their objection to the message protestors were expressing

70. Prior to September 2020, the COUNTY and BAXTER had received clear notice that peaceful protests and lawful demonstrations have occurred and will continue to occur in Monroe County, and that without proper training, his Deputy Sheriffs would violate individuals' constitutional rights and endanger the life and safety of protesters, such as Plaintiff.

71. The COUNTY and BAXTER deliberately disregarded the fact that peaceful protests and peaceful demonstrations have occurred and will continue to occur in Monroe County, and instead has trained his Deputies that such lawful First Amendment activities constitute "civil disturbances" that must be policed in the same manner as "violent mobs" or "riots."

72. The COUNTY and BAXTER, upon information and belief, took no steps to train Sheriff's Deputies on lawfully policing protests and other First Amendment activities.

73. Instead, the COUNTY and BAXTER, pursuant to the County's Hazard Mitigation Plan, trained Sheriff's Deputies that a "civil disturbance" is defined as both "peaceful demonstrations or acts of violence."

74. Upon information and belief, the Hazard Mitigation Plan was in full force and effect at all times relevant herein.

75. Upon information and belief, prior to 2020 and at all times relevant herein, the COUNTY and BAXTER had implemented the Hazard Mitigation Plan, and trained Sheriff's Deputies in accordance with its mandates. Thus, the COUNTY and BAXTER explicitly conflate peaceful protests and peaceful demonstration with violent riots.

76. Upon information and belief, the COUNTY and BAXTER did not provide any training to Sheriff's Deputies on drawing a meaningful distinction between "peaceful demonstrations" and "violent mobs". For example, in its "Hazard Mitigation Plan," the County states that, “Many civil unrest incidents are spontaneous and can occur at any time, rendering prediction of probability of future occurrences difficult. When these incidents occur, they can become extremely disruptive and difficult to control. Assumedly, civil unrest incidents including marches, protests, demonstrations, and gatherings will continue to occur throughout Monroe County.”

77. According to the Hazard Mitigation Plan, peaceful protests and demonstrations are discouraged because of the perceived negative impacts on property resources, real estate and the economy; again, this is a result of the COUNTY and BAXTER falsely conflating “peaceful demonstrations” and peaceful protests with “acts of violence.”

78. Upon information and belief, the COUNTY and BAXTER do not provide any training to Sheriff’s Deputies on how to encourage and support individuals engaging in “peaceful demonstrations” to ensure that their constitutional rights are not violated by law enforcement officers.

79. Upon information and belief, the COUNTY and BAXTER do not provide any training to Sheriff’s Deputies on making a meaningful distinction between how Sheriff’s Deputies are trained and instructed on policing “peaceful demonstrations”, “peaceful protests” versus “violent mobs” and riots.

80. Instead, the Hazard Mitigation Plan states that, “[m]any protests intended to be peaceful demonstrations to the public and the government can escalate into general chaos.” Thus, upon information and belief, the COUNTY and BAXTER train Sheriff’s Deputies to police peaceful demonstrations in the same manner as they would a violent mob.

81. Like the RPD, upon information and belief, BAXTER trains Sheriff’s Deputies exclusively on deterring, dispersing, and demoralizing protests and peaceful demonstrations.

82. In June 2020, several Monroe County Legislators called on BAXTER to implement new protest training to ensure the safety of protesters at Black Lives Matter demonstrations. The legislators drafted a letter to County Executive Adam Bello and BAXTER in which they made a number of requests related to public safety and the safety of protesters, and closed by stating, “Once again, we believe the safety of both protesters, motorists, and law enforcement is of the utmost importance. Right here in Monroe County and across the Nation, we have seen the negative results when leaders are reactionary rather than proactive. Please be sure that a plan is in place to ensure the mutual safety of all involved.”

83. BAXTER claimed the letter was a “political stunt” and refused to provide any specific details regarding how Sheriff’s Deputies would ensure the safety of protesters during peaceful demonstrations

84. As a result of the COUNTY’s unlawful policies, practices and customs, and BAXTER’s negligence, Plaintiff was injured and harmed, as described herein.

V. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF: Municipal Liability

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for Defendants’ Violations of Plaintiff’s First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

85. All preceding and subsequent paragraphs are incorporated by reference.

86. 95. It was objectively unreasonable for the Defendants to shoot Plaintiff with pepper balls on September 4, 2020.

96. It was objectively unreasonable for the Defendants to use military grade weapons, "less-than-lethal" weapons, and chemical weapons against Ms. AMES on September 4, 2020, without first having made an individualized determination that it was reasonable to use any force Ms. AMES based on her own individual conduct, instead of any perceived "group conduct."

97. It was objectively unreasonable for the Defendants to use teargas and other chemical weapons against Ms. AMES and other protesters when they had actual and/or constructive knowledge that said weapons caused serious damages to women's reproductive systems.

98. The types and levels of force Defendants used against Plaintiff were in contravention of, or inconsistent with, related RPD policies and/or training.

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983

102. All preceding and subsequent paragraphs are incorporated by reference.

103. In committing the acts and omissions complained of herein, Defendants acted under color of state law—individually, in concert, and through a conspiracy—to deprive Plaintiff of the rights protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

104. Defendants (a) retaliated against Plaintiff for engaging in speech and/or conduct protected by the First Amendment, and (b) discriminated against Plaintiff based on the viewpoint that she and other protesters were expressing; and (c) imposed restrictions on such protected speech and/or conduct that violated Plaintiff’s First Amendment rights, including, but not limited to subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force, in arresting and prosecuting plaintiff, in selectively enforcing laws and regulations against Plaintiff, and in otherwise violating Plaintiff’s rights and engaging in the acts and omissions complained of herein.

109. Ms. AMES's First Amendment Rights were violated, and her speech was curbed and hindered, as a result of being assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force and falsely arrested by Defendants.

110. Defendants' unlawful actions towards Ms. AMES were motivated by the message she was expressing: calling for greater police accountability, a reallocation of funding from away from police departments and into Black and Latinx communities, the end of police brutality, and a recognition that Black Lives Matter.

111. Defendants' actions effectively chilled and deterred Ms. AMES from exercising her First Amendment Rights, as she was prevented from further protesting on the night of September 4-5, 2020 as a result of being attacked with chemical weapons; and was chilled and deterred from engaging in future protests, for fear of being subjected to similar unlawful actions by law enforcement.

112. The unlawful conduct of the individual defendants was willful, malicious, oppressive, and/or reckless, and was of such a nature that punitive damages should be imposed against them.

113. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages

115. The individual defendants all had an affirmative duty to intervene on Plaintiff’s behalf to prevent the violation of her constitutional rights by the other Defendant RPD officers and Sheriff’s Deputies.

116. BAXTER had a duty to intervene to stop and/or prevent the City and the RPD from using teargas, pepper balls, and other chemical weapons against protesters.

117. Baxter and the other individual defendants failed to intervene on Plaintiff’s behalf despite having had realistic opportunities to do so.

118. Baxter and the other individual defendants failed to intervene on Plaintiff’s behalf despite having substantially contributed to the circumstances within which Plaintiff’s rights were violated by their affirmative conduct.

119. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of BAXTER and the individual defendants, Plaintiff’s constitutional rights were violated.

120. Defendant’ actions were willful, malicious, oppressive, and/or reckless, and was of such a nature that punitive damages should be imposed.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Negligent Training, Supervision and Discipline
(Against BAXTER)

122. All preceding and subsequent paragraphs are incorporated by reference.

123. Defendant BAXTER was negligent in the training, supervision and discipline of the Defendant Sheriff's Deputies, who were provided, upon information and belief, no training for policing protests, engaging in peaceful crowd control, or how to properly and safely use the "less lethal" weapons.

124. Alternatively, the training BAXTER provided to the Sheriff's Deputies was inadequate.

125. Moreover, despite their use of extreme and excessive violence against protesters on September 2-6, 2020, BAXTER was negligent in failing to supervise or discipline any of his Sheriff's Deputies related to any force used protesters on those nights prior to Plaintiff's injury. BAXTER's negligence was the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

126. BAXTER's negligence in failing to supervise and discipline his Sheriff's Deputies was the direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries.

127. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Negligent Planning of the Protest Response
(Against BAXTER)

128. All preceding and subsequent paragraphs are incorporated by reference.

129. Defendant BAXTER was negligent in planning the response of his Sheriff's Deputies to the protests.

130. BAXTER had a special duty to ensure that the rights of Plaintiff and other protesters to free speech, expression and to assemble under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, and Article I, section 8 of the New York State Constitution, were not violated, and that protesters were not assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force and/or falsely arrested by law enforcement.

131. BAXTER breached his duty to keep demonstrators safe by, among other things, implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies that Black Lives Matter protests are led by a nationwide conspiracy of outside agitators bent on violence; this manifested in the training of Sheriff's Deputies that what seem to be peaceful demonstrators are a shield deliberately sent to the front lines to screen the throwing of objects from the rear. That training conveniently justifies and encourages suppressing all protestors by collectively punishing nonviolent ones. The message to their officers was clear: there is no such thing as a peaceful protestor.

132. BAXTER breached his duty to Plaintiff and other protesters by implementing a protest response plan that violated the rights to free speech, expression and to assemble.

133. BAXTER breached his duty to Plaintiff and other protesters by implementing a protest response plan that conflated peaceful protests and demonstrations with violent mobs and riots; thus, BAXTER knew or should have known that in the absence of a proper protest response plan, his Sheriff's Deputies would use unreasonable and excessive force against peaceful demonstrators, like Plaintiff.

134. BAXTER breached his duty to Plaintiff and other protesters by implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies to use chemical weapons against protesters; however, based on national news reports in the months before the September protests, BAXTER knew or should have known that exposure to chemical weapons such as pepper balls, tear gas and OC spray can cause serious adverse health effects, including menstrual irregularities.

135. BAXTER breached his duty to keep demonstrators safe by, among other things, implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies to police peaceful demonstrations in the same manner as they would police violent mobs.

136. BAXTER breached his duty to keep demonstrators safe by, among other things, implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies to use chemical weapons indiscriminately against protesters.

137. BAXTER breached his duty to keep demonstrators safe by, among other things, implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies to that they could shoot pepper balls and other "less-than-lethal" projectiles at protesters' heads.

138. BAXTER breached his duty to keep demonstrators safe by, among other things, implementing a protest response plan that instructed his Sheriff's Deputies to use "less-than-lethal" weapons and chemical weapons against "groups" of protesters based on perceived "group conduct", without making any individualized determination that they were legally justified to use force against any individual in the perceived "group."

139. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result BAXTER negligently planning the response to the protests.

140. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages.

WHEREFORE and in light of the foregoing, Plaintiff demands judgment on all claims for relief:

- a. Empanel a jury;
- b. Award compensatory and punitive damages;
- c. The Plaintiff demands the foregoing relief jointly and severally against all of the defendants in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower Courts, except that the punitive damages demands are, as a matter of law, not recoverable against a municipality and therefore are not made against the City;

- d. Award Plaintiff reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, and interest pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and
- e. Such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.
